

World on fire:

Workers, resistance & revolution

A weekend conference of socialist ideas in action

Friday, Oct 30 to Sunday, Nov 1
TMU Student Centre
55 Gould Street • Toronto
Get your tickets here: bit.ly/redoct26

World on fire:

Workers, resistance & revolution

A weekend conference of socialist ideas in action

Friday, Oct 30 to Sunday, Nov 1
TMU Student Centre
55 Gould Street • Toronto
Get your tickets here: bit.ly/redoct26

RED OCT 2026

- Waged: $60.00
- Unwaged/low-waged: $25.00
- Solidarity: $120.00
- Or pay what you can (Money will never be a barrier to participation)

Over 30 sessions! Follow your course:

Until all of us are free

- Indigenous sovereignty & socialism
- Russia 1917: "Festival of the oppressed"
- Queer liberation and the Black radical tradition
- A socialist history of disability

Imperialism & resistance

- Easter Rising 1916: James Connolly & the fight for national liberation
- Turtle Island, South Africa, Palestine: What is settler colonialism?
- "Fair Play for Cuba!" How global solidarity broke a blockade
- China: From revolution to state capitalism

Socialists at work

- "Smash the patriarchy!" Women, work & revolution
- Class struggle: The radical roots of education workers
- War on workers: The political economy of AI
- Trade unions & the fight for reproductive justice

Socialists & elections

- What was the Regina Manifesto?
- The NDP in power: A socialist history
- From Mamdani to Lewis: Is radical reformism possible?
- Socialist in Seattle: Kshama Sawant & the fight against Amazon

Life under capitalism

- Why does capitalism need war?
- Socialism & sports: A hidden history of resistance
- Leon Trotsky's Art & Revolution: How socialists understand art
- OPSEC: Security culture & socialist strategy

Memory of the class

- The radical Jewish tradition
- Lessons from the Spanish Civil War: 90 years later
- Soledad Brother: George Jackson & the fight for abolition
- "Fight or starve!" A radical history of tenant organizing

spring ★ Get your tickets at: bit.ly/redoct26

RED OCT 2026

- Waged: $60.00
- Unwaged/low-waged: $25.00
- Solidarity: $120.00
- Or pay what you can (Money will never be a barrier to participation)

Over 30 sessions! Follow your course:

Until all of us are free

- Indigenous sovereignty & socialism
- Russia 1917: "Festival of the oppressed"
- Queer liberation and the Black radical tradition
- A socialist history of disability

Imperialism & resistance

- Easter Rising 1916: James Connolly & the fight for national liberation
- Turtle Island, South Africa, Palestine: What is settler colonialism?
- "Fair Play for Cuba!" How global solidarity broke a blockade
- China: From revolution to state capitalism

Socialists at work

- "Smash the patriarchy!" Women, work & revolution
- Class struggle: The radical roots of education workers
- War on workers: The political economy of AI
- Trade unions & the fight for reproductive justice

Socialists & elections

- What was the Regina Manifesto?
- The NDP in power: A socialist history
- From Mamdani to Lewis: Is radical reformism possible?
- Socialist in Seattle: Kshama Sawant & the fight against Amazon

Life under capitalism

- Why does capitalism need war?
- Socialism & sports: A hidden history of resistance
- Leon Trotsky's Art & Revolution: How socialists understand art
- OPSEC: Security culture & socialist strategy

Memory of the class

- The radical Jewish tradition
- Lessons from the Spanish Civil War: 90 years later
- Soledad Brother: George Jackson & the fight for abolition
- "Fight or starve!" A radical history of tenant organizing

spring ★ Get your tickets at: bit.ly/redoct26